Eliza did a keynote and workshop for the women leaders on my team, and feedback was phenomenal -- I got more unsolicited praise and thanks from the team than any other training intervention."

Daniel Fields

"Eliza VanCort's keynote presentation was the highlight of our inaugural Security LeadHER conference. Her story is so relatable and engaging and the communication tools she provided were incredibly beneficial. She shared both practical and introspective insights, grounded in research, that can be immediately applied both professionally and personally. With sharp intelligence, keen wit and humor, Eliza delivers on all levels - inspirational, motivational, educational, and business leadership."
